BIBLIOGRAPHY

Low Back Pain

Agency for Health Care Research and Quality (AHRQ); CONQUEST. Measures related to low back pain from various developers. Web Site: http://www.qualitymeasures.ahrq.gov/

Agency for Health Care Research and Quality (AHRQ); Back Pain Patient Outcomes Assessment Team (BOAT). The back pain PORT analyzes back surgery practice variations and examines the relative effectiveness of alternative ways of diagnosing and treating low back pain. Web Site: www.ahrq.gov/clinic/medtep/backpain.htm

Agency for Health Care Research and Quality (AHRQ); Quality Indicators from the Healthcare Cost and Utilization Project (HCUP QIs). Two measures related to back pain hospitalization. Web Site: www.ahrq.gov/data/hcup

American College of Occupational and Environmental Medicine – Guideline related to use of spinal x-rays in occupational medicine. Web Site: www.acoem.org/position/position.asp

Centers for Disease Control (CDC). National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health (NIOSH). Results of prevention oriented studies related to back programs and use of back belts. Web Site: www.cdc.gov/niosh

West Virginia Workers Compensation Division. Low back examination form and guidelines for herniated lumbar disc, low back musculoligamentous injury, physical medicine and triggerpoint injections.
